ECONOMIC IMPACT

Exceptional Persons, Inc.

STRENGTHENING WORKFORCE

BOLSTERING LOCAL ECONOMY

Home and Community Based Services (HCBS) support persons in gaining greater independence

REDUCING PUBLIC EXPENDITURE & GOVERNMENTAL RELIANCE

LONG-TERM SOCIETAL BENEFITS

IMPROVED QUALITY OF LIFE
By enhancing independence and access to community services, individuals with disabilities experience greater health, social inclusion, and personal satisfaction.

DECREASED CAREGIVER BURDEN
Families and caregivers benefit from reduced stress and increased productivity, positively impacting the overall economy.

INCLUSIVE COMMUNITIES
By advocating for inclusive hiring practices, the non-profit encourages local businesses to hire individuals with disabilities, further diversifying and strengthening the local labor market.

CQI Accreditation encompasses an entire organization, as true transformation is predicated on change at all levels.
